

Cowboy's Lullabye

3/4 B 3 21 3 21 3

© Caren Armstrong 2005

D D7 G Em
When the fire's burning low, and the silver moon's high
A7sus4 A7 G A7
The doughies are quiet and he's through for the night
D D7 G Gm (333333 bar)
He thinks of the day, so dusty and long
D A7 D /
He leans back and sings out a song

D D7 Em A7
Hi dee hi Lie de lie Lie dee lo
G A7 D A7
Lay dee oh dee Ay dee oh dee oh
D D7 Em A7
Hi dee hi Lie dee lie Lie dee lo
G A7 D /
A cowboy's life is the road

D D7 G Em
He dreams of the woman left waiting too long
A7sus4 A7 G A7
And can't keep from wondering, just where he went wrong
D D7 G Gm
But morning comes early, it's time to move on
D A7 D /
He rides out singing this song

REPEAT CHORUS

D D7 G Em
The days in the saddle, the sunsets of gold
A7sus4 A7 G A7
The wide open spaces to shelter his soul
D D7 G Gm
The wind is his lover, and forever free
D A7 D /
She sings such a sweet harmony

D D7 Em A7
Hi dee hi Lie de lie Lie de lo
G A7 G A7
A cowboy's life is the road
D D7 Em A7
Hi dee hi Lie de lie Lie de lo
G A7 Em / A7sus4 A7 D
A cowboy's life is the road